

24 May 66

Dear Jack: My son John is here with us, on his leave before Vietnam, and I am spending as much time with him as I can. He has about two more weeks & then I'm going to work on a novel and that's as it is. I shall not be in town. However, if you should drive out this way, I would be glad to see you if you would understand that I am not all of me present and accounted for.

Yours
JL

24 May, 66

Dear Jack:

My son John is here with us on his leave before Vietnam and I am spending as much time with him as I can. He has about two more weeks. Then I'm going to work on a novel and that's as it is. I shall not be in town. However, if you should drive out this way, I would be glad to see you if you would understand that I am not all of me present and accounted for.

Yours,
JS
